Start Your Event Planning Career

If you're a creative individual who loves working with people and planning beautiful events, you're in luck! There's never been a better time to launch a lucrative career in the event and wedding planning industry.

In today's busy world, more and more consumers are relying on professionals to help them plan, organize, and decorate special events. Whether you prefer to plan local parties and weddings or you dream of planning corporate retreats and luxury destination weddings, your career in event planning can take you anywhere. With QC's comprehensive training and your passion for planning memorable events, the possibilities are endless!

Career Opportunities

Start Your Own Business

Be your own boss, set your own hours, and make your own rules. Become a trendsetter and inspire a team. While that's not everyone's dream, many event and wedding planners strive for this goal!

Work for an Event Planning Company

If your goal is to work for an established event planning firm, education will be a huge asset to meet that goal. You'll be able to stand out as a candidate who has the skills and dedication to get the job done!

Become an In-House Corporate Planner

More and more large companies hire full-time event planners to coordinate conferences, meetings, trips, business retreats and more. These are often some of the best-paid professionals in the planning industry!

Work in the Service Industry

Are you interested in working as a planner for a hotel, theme park, caterer, cruise line, travel agency, spa or resort? A professional certification will help open all of these doors!

How Online Learning Works

In order to truly learn event planning online, you need more than quality course materials. You also need a support system that helps you through problems, and a tutor who will challenge you to always deliver your best results. Learning online in a hands-on manner has never been easier thanks to QC's 5-step system.

Enroll Online & Receive Your Course Materials

When you enroll, you'll receive access to your online student center where you can view all your course materials. These include digital texts, video lessons, assignments and more!

Work Your Way Through the Online Course

Each course is split into learning units, which build on each other as you progress through the course. Follow your course guide to know when to read a course text, watch a video or complete an assignment. Get stuck? No worries, get support from your classmates in the Virtual Classroom or reach out to your Teaching Assistant!

Review Your Tutor's Feedback

Once your tutor has graded your unit, you will receive their detailed audio feedback on what you did well, what you could improve, and advice for the next unit. Listen carefully and keep this feedback in mind as you start the coursework on your next unit, and watch your work progress as you complete the course!

Submit Your Assignments

When you've completed all assignments for a unit, you'll submit your work for grading via the online student center. Your personal tutor will review and grade each assignment, and then provide you with feedback and advice.

Graduate & Receive Your Certificate

Once you've completed the course, you'll graduate from QC Event School and receive your certificate and professional designation. Step into the world of event planning confident that you have the skills and knowledge to be successful.
